

The Friends of Old Hall Association

Annual General Meeting

Thursday 21st of November 2019 @ 7:30pm

GAINSBOROUGH OLD HALL

'The Annual General Meeting shall receive the report of the Committee, pass the accounts, appoint such Officers as are to be appointed, fix annual subscriptions & do such other business'

Open to All

Guest Speaker:

Sarah Hogg

Katherine's House

Kettlethorpe, a modest little group of buildings deep in the English countryside, has housed many lives woven of great events and private joys and griefs. It was the home of Katherine Swynford, perhaps the most romantic figure of medieval times, but before and after her of knights and farmers, soldiers and lawyers, maids and maidservants, whose footsteps echo through the house's history.

